

Dr Shalini Dhyani, Principal Scientist CSIR-NEERI was invited to The Centre of Excellence on Sustainable Land Management (CoE-SLM) by Global Land Initiative UNCCD, Bonn, to serve as an Expert Resource Person at Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education (ICFRE), Dehradun, for the international training programme on “Integrated Approaches for Landscape Conservation: Achieving Land Degradation Neutrality (LDN) and Carbon Neutrality”, held from 19–23 January 2026 at CoE-SLM, ICFRE, Dehradun, India. She shared her vast experience in landscape conservation approaches and delivered a talk on “Nature-based Solutions (NbS) and Ecosystem Services: Concepts, Quantification, and Trade-offs”. The training was attended by participants from Africa, Asia, and Europe.

